

THE PEMBROKE-KING'S PROGRAMME

University of Cambridge

SUMMER STUDY 2012

Cambridge CB2 1RF
United Kingdom
Tel: +44 (0) 1223 338138
Email : pkp@pem.cam.ac.uk

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMMES
PEMBROKE COLLEGE

www.pembroke.cam.ac.uk/ip/pkp

THE PEMBROKE-KING'S PROGRAMME, UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

The summer Pembroke-King's Programme, based at Pembroke and King's Colleges, offers an exceptional opportunity to experience life as an undergraduate in one of the oldest and most distinguished university cities in the world. Founded in 1209, the University of Cambridge is comprised of thirty residential, self-governing colleges. Pembroke College's origins and buildings go back to 1347, while King's College bears the signature of several English kings. Completed by Henry VIII, the college's extraordinary Gothic chapel is one of Britain's most visited tourist attractions.

ACADEMICS

During this eight-week programme, students select three courses from a wide variety of options in the arts, social sciences, humanities and sciences. Courses, like

SUBJECTS

Courses are organised in nine subject groups and students are free to mix and match courses from the over 45 on offer.

Arts and Architecture – art history, architecture, film and the study of drawing and painting

Creative Writing – short story, script and novel writing and arts journalism

Economics – development economics, experimental economics, finance and international macroeconomics

English Literature – Bloomsbury, Avant-Garde literature, Shakespeare, forensic linguistics

Business – international management and business ethics, creativity and business innovation

History – Anglo-American relations, twentieth century European history, British history 400-1330

International Relations – foreign policy and international security

Law, Politics and Society – political philosophy, introduction to English common law, ethics and sociology

Science – behavioural ecology, neurobiology, mathematics and neuroscience

LEISURE

An extensive daily schedule of activities is organised by Cambridge students, who live and work residentially with the programme, including river walks and cream teas at Grantchester; football, tennis, croquet, cricket; pub quizzes and dining out; days at the seaside and walks in the hills; historical and literary tours and punting. Throughout the summer, students can take advantage of Cambridge's busy cultural calendar of concerts and musicals, as well as the Cambridge Shakespeare Festival.