

You are

- recently graduated from university (Master or PhD) with above-average degree in Business or Economics.
- bilingual (fluent in English a Chinese).
- international experienced through studies, internships or first working experience
- engaged in activities beyond your studies
- mature, assertive and have high ambition and desire for general management.
- a team player with good communication skills and social and intercultural competency.
- open-minded, internationally mobile and loo

